

In the Year 2026 Skit

Mariners JH

Josh Griffin

Idea: Students will be graduating about this year (we can't be too specific since we serve 6th – 8th graders so just arbitrarily picked 2026 but choose whatever you would like)

Origin: to be done in the style of the OG Conan:

Welcome to "In the Year 2026" – this is where the JH team makes bold predictions that are sure to come true in the future. We've just started the year 2020, so Happy New Year and enjoy these predictions from about the time you graduate from High School.

(lights go dim, the 3 people on stage hold flashlights up to their faces and make predictions)

JOSH: In the year 2026, Donald Trump will be elected for a 4th straight term, even though the Constitution limits him to just 2 terms. He'll be half robot, half man and request to be called, Robo-president. (picture)

COOPER: In the year 2026, goats will be the main method of transportation in the state of California.

HAILEY: Man, 2026 is sure going to be a strange one. In the year 2026, pro skateboarder Tony Hawk's real name will be revealed to be Frank Hawk, which will drop his coolness factor by a lot.

[^^this one was cut, replaced with this one below]

HAILEY: Scrunchies will no longer be given by girlfriends to boyfriends as a symbol fo their relationship. Instead they will now exchange Invisalign's. (picture)

JOSH: That's true actually. OK, so in the year 2026, services for Junior High at Mariners will be all done via Tik Tok and last just 15 seconds.

COOPER: In the year 2026, parents will give up on making kids clean their room and just buy them disposable clothes. (picture)

HAILEY: In the year 2026, Kylie Jenner will release a new makeup line to help her with her aging skin. Here's a picture of her with her new makeup on (picture of her currently) and here's a picture when she takes off her makeup at night (picture of Baby Yoda)

JOSH: In the year 2026, a new Star Wars movie will be released, where the Emperor didn't really die again this time either and comes back to destroy everyone.

COOPER: Did you see Star Wars over break? (work crowd) SO good. Oh sorry, and finally, in the year 2026, YOU will be done with junior high, high school and be ready to head off to college. Wild right?

HAILEY: That's your future kids!

(transition to 1-high energy song)
